ABORTION ACCESS IN DOLLAR

YEAR (AND A HALT!)

We released last year's annual report—data, analysis, and stories from our first year post-Dobbs—as a downloadable zine!

YEAR (AND

IN ABORTION AC

We chose this portable format because we want information about abortion in DC to be as accessible as possible.

> We're now asking our community to download, print, and distribute our zine wherever you can:

House parties, collective actions, local businesses, libraries, club meetings...even your own coffee table!

ABORT

We'll show you how to put together our zine without a hitch!

1. Download + print the zine!

dcabortionfund.org/wtfhappened

Head to the above link, and click "download the zine." This will lead you to a print-ready version!

Have a printer already?
Fire it up and print away—
double-sided, flip on the short edge!

Don't have a printer, but still want to distribute? Consider checking out the DC Public Library, or your school's printing service if you're a student!

File issues? Email us and we can help!

3. Share the zine far and wide!

Bring a couple to pass out at your next direct action!

Keep an extra in your bag to show to any and everyone!

Suggestions from DCAF include...

Give a copy to five friends!

Email or head into your local, independent bookstore to see if they'd stock them for free!

Pin one to the community bulletin at your local library, coffee shop, or third space of choice!

register at your business!
