

A YEAR OF GROWTH AND PLANNING FOR THE FUTURE

In 2019, there was once again an increased demand for our services. As the abortion landscape around the country becomes more restrictive, more patients have been traveling to the DC area for their abortion care—and more people are turning to DCAF if they need help paying for their abortion.

Ahead of our 25th anniversary, we have started the humbling work of reflecting on who we are as a fund and what we want to become. We spent time last year aligning ourselves and our volunteers with a shared understanding of a reproductive justice framework—which includes greater transparency for callers, stronger collaboration between abortion funds that centers callers' experiences, and updated intake processes that affirm callers' agency. We have also spent time collaborating with movements and partners in the community who share our values. This will continue in 2020 and beyond.

The DC Abortion Fund (DCAF) is an all-volunteer, 501(c)(3) nonprofit that makes grants to pregnant people in the DC area, as well as those traveling to the area, who cannot afford the full cost of an abortion. DCAF is the only organization in DC that focuses solely on providing this service in our community.
